Angela Bacon's Copyediting Contract

Thank you for choosing me to copyedit your manuscript! Copyediting includes checking your manuscript for spelling and punctuation errors, grammar mistakes, sentence structure problems, and other small inconsistencies (for example, if you have named a character "Barbara" at one point and then accidentally list the same character's name as "Linda" later on in the manuscript, I will correct it). Copyediting does not include checking facts, re-writing large sections of text, or contacting others for permission to quote their work. If you wish to have a more in-depth edit than what I've listed here, please contact me for pricing.

I've listed my current fees for copyediting below; if you are using one of the copyediting coupons I provide in my e-newsletter, your fee will be less.

1-250 pages: $1.00 per page

251-450 pages: $0.95 per page

451+ pages: $0.90 per page

The client is using a coupon for $_____ per page.

Your manuscript is _____ pages long, and I will be charging you $_____ per page. The full cost for me to copyedit your manuscript is $_____. Half of the money is due up front; the other half is due when I return your finished manuscript to you. I accept cash, money orders, cashier's checks, or PayPal payments. I do not accept personal checks for copyediting services due to the risk of fraudulence. If you choose to use PayPal, please send your payment to englishbacon07@yahoo.com.

I will not begin to copyedit your manuscript until I receive the first half of your payment. Once I return your finished manuscript to you, the second half of your payment is due immediately. If I do not receive the remainder of your payment within ten days of returning your manuscript to you, a late fee of $5.00 will be added on for each month that your payment is late.

Once I have received your manuscript and the first half of your payment, I will return your finished manuscript to you within the following timeframe:

Manuscripts that are 1-50 pages long: 8 days

Manuscripts that are 51-100 pages long: 21 days

Manuscripts that are 101-250 pages long: 28 days

Manuscripts that are 251-400 pages long: 35 days

Manuscripts that are 401+ pages long: 42 days

In the event that I am unable to finish copyediting your manuscript due to serious illness or an "act of God," I will return your manuscript to you along with any copyediting I have been able to finish on it and will issue you a refund according to the number of pages I did not copyedit.

I agree to provide copyediting services as stated above.
